

1. Draw values.
2. Difficulty of a pairwise decision depends on the difference in values.
3. Nash thresholds depend on the difficulties and optimization weights.
4. Probability of edge forming each direction and expected time for edge to form depend on the difficulties and thresholds.

5. Edges of decision network are drawn according to those probabilities.
6. Consensus scores.